

15. Court and prison records, if applicable

16. Military record, if applicable

17. Medical examination results

18. Affidavit of Support, Form I-134 and the specified financial documents:

- Affidavits of Support (Form I-134) must be signed by the sponsor and notarized by a Notary Public no more than one year prior to the date of interview. Please submit one copy of the I-134 for each applicant.
- Complete tax returns and W-2s for the past year
- An official letter of employment (on company letterhead) signed within the past year or a valid business license for the petitioner
- Joint sponsors must include all of the documents listed above plus proof of their citizenship or LPR status: U.S. Birth certificate, naturalization certificate, or green card

19. Proof of your relationship with the petitioner and your derivative family members (see below)

YOU ARE STRONGLY URGED TO PERSONALLY KEEP A DUPLICATE FILE COPY OF ALL DOCUMENTS SUBMITTED IN CONNECTION WITH YOUR VISA APPLICATION.

PROOF OF RELATIONSHIP: Please be prepared to present suitable documentation to establish the bona-fides of your relationship with your petitioner at the time of your visa interview. The type of documentation you present will depend on your particular circumstances. Failure to present satisfactory documentation may delay or prevent issuance of your visa. The following types of documentation have proven helpful in the past in adjudication of visa cases involving engagement or marriages.

- Photographs of you and your fiancé(e)/spouse together, photographs of your engagement/wedding ceremony/party, letters and/or e-mails that you have exchanged, telephone bills from your fiancé(e)/spouse showing that you and your fiancé(e)/spouse are in telephonic contact with each other or any other evidence to demonstrate that you and your fiancé(e)/spouse maintain an on-going relationship with each other from the time the relationship began. Please arrange all materials in chronological order.

NOTE: Do not bring photo albums. Remove relevant photos from albums and bring loose photos only.

- Receipts showing joint obligations for housing and living expenses, such as rent, utilities, telephone, etc.;
- Mortgages, leases, credit accounts, or other financial obligations undertaken jointly;
- Evidence of joint ownership of property;
- Evidence of joint management of finances, such as joint bank accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans;
- Correspondence to both you and your fiancé(e) from family members;
- Evidence that those who know the parties recognize them as a couple, such as invitations, cards, correspondence, and so forth;
- Any other documentation or evidence would be suitable which shows a bona fide relationship exists.