

July 30, 2012

[Name]

Dear Petitioner:

The State Department's National Visa Center has recently received an approved I-129F petition filed on behalf of your fiancé. This letter is to let you know that within a week the petition will be forwarded to the appropriate visa-issuing post where your visa interview will take place. The U.S. Embassy/Consulate General will contact your fiancé when ready to begin processing his/her application. Our records show that you filed the I-129F petition for:

Name of Fiancé:
INS Receipt Number:

[Info]

Case Number:

The case will be processed at:

Post:

[Post location]

Your fiancé will soon receive a packet with instructions from the consular section on how to apply for the K1 visa at that post and what documents will be required. In the meantime, you should visit the Department of State's website at www.travel.state.gov/visa/immigrants/types/types_4323.html to determine if the processing post has any information of which you should be immediately aware.

Sincerely,

Bureau of Consular Affairs