

REQUEST FOR EVIDENCE

* All foreign language documents must be submitted with complete word-for-word English translations. The translator must certify that the translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate. Do not submit the English translation without the foreign language document.

---

Failure to respond to this request may result in the termination of conditional residence status and subsequent removal proceedings. Please submit the following evidence using the attached Form I-797 (blue sheet) with the response.

IDENTITY DOCUMENT: Submit legible copies of the conditional permanent resident and petitioning spouse's driver's licenses and or identity cards from the appropriate state's motor vehicle department.

EVIDENCE OF GOOD FAITH MARRIAGE: To establish eligibility for removal of conditional status, it is requested that additional documentation be submitted to establish a good faith marriage that covers the period of time from the date of the marriage to the present date, or if applicable, covering the period of time from the marriage date up to the end of the relationship through divorce, separation, or death. Such examples may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Birth Certificate: Submit a legible copy of the civilly registered birth certificate for any child(ren) born to the conditional permanent resident and the U.S. citizen spouse.
- Financial Records: Submit evidence of joint ownership of assets and joint responsibility for liabilities. This documentation should reflect the names of both the conditional permanent resident and the U.S. citizen spouse. Such evidence may include but is not limited to the following:
  - Copies of mortgage agreements or deeds showing joint ownership of assets or property or joint tenancy of a common residence.
  - Copies of insurance policies such as life insurance, medical insurance, etc.
  - Copies of credit card statements.
  - Any other documentation which shows that the marriage was not entered into in order to circumvent U.S. immigration laws.
- Residence: Submit evidence of communal residence. This documentation should reflect the names of both the conditional permanent resident and their U.S. citizen spouse. Such evidence may include but is not limited to the following:
  - Copies of rental leases/agreements or mortgage agreements, deeds showing joint tenancy at a common residence signed by the conditional resident, the U.S. spouse and the owner(s) of the property (or the property manager).
  - Copies of utility bills such as telephone, gas, electric, water, cable, Internet, etc. or other statements issued in both names indicating the residential address.
  - If applicable, submit copies of military Basic Allowance for Quarters (BAQ) form for housing and/or DD Form 1172 for dependent military dependent cards.
  - Any other documentation which shows that the marriage was not entered into in order to circumvent U.S. immigration laws.