When responding to the National Visa Center, please include the bar code sheet that came with this letter. Failure to include the bar code sheet may cause a delay in the processing of your case. _____1 - IMMIGRANT VISA APPLICATION PART 1:_____

All traveling immigrant visa applicants on your case are required to complete and submit the DS-260 Online Immigrant Visa Application. Even if you previously filled out a DS-230, Application for Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration Form, you must now complete the DS-260 in order to be eligible for a visa interview.

You will find instructions for submitting all required forms and supporting civil documents on our website <http://nvc.state.gov/>.

Please note the applicant will need the following information to access and complete DS-260:

- NVC case number
- Invoice identification number
- Beneficiary identification number for each traveling applicant

If you are unsure of, or no longer have the required identification numbers, please contact the NVC using our secure form at <https://secureforms.travel.state.gov/ask-nvc.php> or by telephone at 603-334-0700 and we will provide them to you.

To avoid delaying your visa(s) we urge you to send the required supporting civil documents, for all applicants, together in a single submission as soon as possible after submitting the DS-260.

Your case may be involved with paperless processes for submitting forms and documents. At this time, the availability of paperless processing is limited to selected U.S. Embassies and Consulates. A list of participating embassies and consulates can be found on <http://nvc.state.gov/>.

_____F - FINANCIAL EVIDENCE:_____

We reviewed your I-864, I-864EZ, I-864W or I-864A Affidavit of Support form and supporting financial documents. While we will schedule your case for an interview, either your Affidavit of Support was incomplete, some of your supporting documents were missing, or both. This could affect the Consular Officer's ability to make a decision on your case.

On the attached Affidavit of Support Assessment Letter, we have put an "X" by each item you need to correct. Go to the Department of State's website at <http://nvc.state.gov/aos> and follow the instructions for the Affidavit of Support form(s).

If your Affidavit of Support form(s) needs correction:

- Fill out a new form(s) online.
- Print, sign and send the original form(s) to the principal applicant so he or she can take them to the visa interview. Do not send the updated form(s) to the NVC.

If we are missing required supporting documents:

- Send the missing documents to the principal applicant so he or she can take them to the visa interview. Do not send the documents to the NVC.

The NVC will send your case to the processing U.S. Embassy or Consulate General. Please make sure that the documents you take to your interview are in the correct order and stapled together, as stated in the I-864 Important Notice instructions.
