Dear [REDACTED]:

On 8/21/2006, we received your approved I-129F nonimmigrant visa petition from the National Visa Center (NVC) according you status as the fiancé (e) (K1) or spouse (K3) of a U.S. citizen under the provisions of Section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended.

Further action on your case awaits assignment of an interview date. Because of our heavy volume of K1/K3 visa applications, the waiting time for a visa interview at present is approximately 120 days from the date we receive the petition in Manila. We will inform you of the interview date as soon as it is scheduled. We will send you an appointment packet with information and instructions to apply for a visa about 30 days before the scheduled interview.

In the meantime, you can now begin preparing for your visa interview. Enclosed is a list of documents required in support of your visa application. Obtain all of the items that apply to you. DO NOT SEND THEM TO THE EMBASSY. You will bring the documents only when a visa interview appointment has been scheduled. Your visa application may be refused or you may be asked to return for another appointment if you fail to bring any of these documents.

You and the petitioner must inform the Embassy immediately of any changes in your address or your respective civil status.

To inquire further about the status of the visa case, you may contact the Embassy's Visa Call Center at 1-909-101-7878 (for PLDT and Smart subscribers only). Callers in the USA can contact the Call Center at 1-888-877-9888. The Call Center is open Monday through Friday, from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. (Manila time). There is a fee assessed to callers by the Call Center for its services. Additional information on "K" nonimmigrant visas is available at our website at:
