RE: N-400, Application for Naturalization

NOTICE OF DECISION

Dear [REDACTED]

This notice refers to the Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) you filed on January 2, 2018 under section 316 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).

After a thorough review of the information provided in your application for naturalization, the documents supporting your application, and your testimony during your naturalization interview, USCIS has determined that you are not eligible for naturalization. Accordingly, USCIS must deny your application for naturalization.

Generally, to qualify for naturalization, under INA 316, an applicant must:

- Be 18 years of age or older at the time of filing Form N-400;
- Be lawfully admitted for permanent residence;
- Be a lawful permanent resident for at least 5 years at the time of filing Form N-400;
- Demonstrate good moral character for at least 5 years prior to the Form N-400 filing date, and during the period leading to administration of the Oath of Allegiance;
- Have resided continuously in the United States for at least 5 years as a lawful permanent resident before filing Form N-400;
- Have resided for at least 3 months in the State or USCIS District where residency is claimed before filing Form N-400;
- Have resided continuously in the United States from the date of filing Form N-400 up to the time of administration of the Oath of Allegiance;
- Be physically present in the United States for at least 2½ years at the time of filing Form N-400;
- Demonstrate a basic knowledge of U.S. history and government;
- Demonstrate the ability to read, write, and speak words in ordinary usage in the English language; and
- Establish an attachment to the principles of the U.S. Constitution and be disposed to the good order and happiness of the United States.

Statement of Facts and Analysis Including Ground(s) for Denial

On April 13, 2013, you obtained permanent resident status through immigrant classification IW6, widows or widowers of of United States Citizens. USCIS received your Form N-400 on January 02, 2018, and on January 14, 2019, you appeared for an interview to determine your eligibility for naturalization.

During the interview and review of your application, the Immigration Services Officer noted that you filed your application for naturalization before you completed the required 5-year residency requirement. In order to qualify for naturalization under INA 316, you must have been a lawful permanent resident for 5 years before filing your application. Although USCIS permits applicants to file Form N-400 up to 90 days before completion of the required period of residence, you submitted your application on January 02, 2018. This filing was not within the 90-day period. Unfortunately, you are ineligible for naturalization at this time since you did not meet the residency requirement at the time of filing Form N-400. Therefore, USCIS denies your application for naturalization. See INA 316(a), 334(a).

You were not eligible to file for N-400 until January 03, 2018. You filed before the 90 day period.

If you believe that you can overcome the grounds for this denial, you may submit a request for a hearing on Form N-336, Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings, within 30 calendar days of service of this decision (33 days if this decision was mailed). See attached 8 CFR 336.2 (a) and 103.8(b). Without a properly filed Form N-336, this decision will become final. See INA 336.

To access Form N-336 or if you need additional information, please visit the USCIS Web site at www.uscis.gov or call our USCIS Contact Center toll free at 1-800-375-5283. You may also make an appointment to speak to a USCIS staff member in person at the USCIS office having jurisdiction over your current place of residence. To schedule an appointment, go to www.uscis.gov and select INFOPASS.

Attachment
(Applicable Law/Regulations)

To better assist you, the sections of the law referenced in your decision are provided below:

INA 316

(a) No person, except as otherwise provided in this title, shall be naturalized, unless such applicant,

(1) immediately preceding the date of filing his application for naturalization has resided continuously, after being lawfully admitted for permanent residence, within the United States for at least five years and during the five years immediately preceding the date of filing his application has been physically present therein for periods totaling at least half of that time, and who has resided within the State or within the district of the Service in the United States in which the applicant filed the application for at least three months,

(2) has resided continuously within the United States from the date of the application up to the time of admission to citizenship,

INA 334

(a) An applicant for naturalization shall make and file with the Attorney General a sworn application in writing, signed by the applicant in the applicant's own handwriting, if physically able to write, which application shall be on a form prescribed by the Attorney General and shall include averments of all facts which in the opinion of the Attorney General may be material to the applicant's naturalization, and required to be proved under this title. In the case of an applicant subject to a requirement of continuous residence under section 316(a) or 319(a), the application for naturalization may be filed up to 3 months before the date the applicant would first otherwise meet such continuous residence requirement.

INA 336

(a) If, after an examination under section 335, an application for naturalization is denied, the applicant may request a hearing before an immigration officer.

(b) If there is a failure to make a determination under section 335 before the end of the 120-day period after the date on which the examination is conducted under such section, the applicant may apply to the United States district court for the district in which the applicant resides for a hearing on the matter. Such court has jurisdiction over the matter and may either determine the matter or remand the matter, with appropriate instructions, to the Service to determine the matter.

(c) The Attorney General shall have the right to appear before any immigration officer in any naturalization proceedings for the purpose of cross-examining the applicant and the witnesses produced in support of the application concerning any matter touching or in any way affecting the applicant's right to admission to citizenship, and shall have the right to call witnesses, including the applicant, produce evidence, and be heard in opposition to, or in favor of, the granting of any application in naturalization proceedings.

(d) The immigration officer shall, if the applicant requests it at the time of filing the request for the hearing, issue a subpoena for the witnesses named by such applicant to appear upon the day set for the hearing, but in case such witnesses cannot be produced upon the hearing other witnesses may be summoned upon notice to the Attorney General, in such manner and at such time as the Attorney General may by regulation prescribe. Such subpoenas may be enforced in the same manner as subpoenas under section 335(b) may be enforced.

(e) It shall be lawful at the time and as a part of the administration by a court of the oath of allegiance under section 337(a), for the court, in its discretion, upon the bona fide prayer of the applicant included in an appropriate petition to the court, to make a decree changing the name of said person, and the certificate of naturalization shall be issued in accordance therewith.

8 CFR 336.2

(a) The applicant, or his or her authorized representative, may request a hearing on the denial of the applicant's application for naturalization by filing a request with USCIS within thirty days after the applicant receives the notice of denial.

8 CFR 103.8

This section states authorized means of service by the Service on parties and on attorneys and other interested persons of notices, decisions, and other papers (except warrants and subpoenas) in administrative proceedings before Service officers as provided in this chapter.

(b) Effect of service by mail. Whenever a person has the right or is required to do some act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, 3 days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.
