

K Visa Required Documents

Refer to the Department of State for the Required Documentation before your visa can be issued.

- Provide the original and one photocopy of each civil document (unless stated)
- Place each photocopy directly beneath each original document.
- Failure to provide a copy of a document will delay your interview. You will be directed to obtain copies and return for your interview.
- The documents must be out of envelopes, sleeves or folders.
- For Families: the children's documents must be separated individually.
- Procedures for obtaining documents from all countries, including a list of documents which are never available from certain countries, can be found at the Department of State's reciprocity website

K1/K2 Document Cover Sheet

- Print and submit the document cover sheet(s) to ensure you have all the required documents (mark with a "✓")
K1 Document Cover Sheet/K2 Document Cover Sheet (attached)

Photographs: Originals only

- Two U.S. passport size photo (5x5cm on a white background).
- Write your Full Name and A# on the back of the photos.
- You can find your A# on the left-hand corner on your copy of your approved I-129F (attached)
- Refer to our website for our list of known photographers who take U.S. sized passport photographs.

Revalidation Letter: Copy only

- Your I-129F petition may expire by the time you attend your final visa interview. To revalidate your petition, please have your U.S. citizen fiancé(e) provide you with a letter requesting that your petition be extended to a further 4 months from the approval date of the I-129F petition. This letter must be dated and signed by your fiancé(e) The letter from your U.S. citizen fiancé(e) should state their intention to still marry you within 90 days of your arrival into the U.S. with the K-1 visa and that you both are still free to marry.

Express Post prepaid satchel (LARGE size)

- To be used to mail your visa to you when issued.
- Keep the tracking number for your records.
- Please be sure the envelope contains your name and the address where you would like us to mail the visa.

Visa Validity

I understand that my Australian Federal Police certificate must be valid at the time of issuing my visa. The visa expiry date will be limited to your Medical Exam Report. Please provide your planned date of travel on the document cover sheet.