RE: I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status

NOTICE OF DECISION

On June 20, 2024, you filed a Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) under section 245 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).

After a thorough review of your application, and the record of evidence, we must inform you that we are denying your application.

To qualify for adjustment under INA 245, an applicant must:

- Be inspected and admitted or inspected and paroled into the United States;
- Be eligible to receive an immigrant visa;
- Be admissible to the United States for permanent residence; and
- Have an immigrant visa immediately available at the time the application is filed.

You must demonstrate that you are eligible to adjust status to a lawful permanent resident (LPR). See Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), section 245.1.

Statement of Facts and Analysis, Including Reason(s) for Denial

You initially submitted the following evidence in support of your application:

- Form G-1145, e-Notification of Application/Petition Acceptance;
- Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status;
- A copy of your original birth certificate, with English translation;
- Form I-94, Arrival/Departure document;
- A copy of your passport;
- A copy of your visa foil inside your passport;
- Form I-864, Affidavit of Support Under Section 213A of the INA;
 - 2020 Form W-2 Wage and Tax Statement;
 - 2021 Form W-2 Wage and Tax Statement;
 - 2023 Form W-2 Wage and Tax Statement;

After reviewing the evidence, USCIS records indicate that you are ineligible for the following reason(s):

Upon review of your application, USCIS found that you did not fully respond to Part 8, questions 61 through 68 on Form I-485. In accordance with section 212(a)(4)(B) of the INA and 8 CFR 212.22(a), unless exempt from the public charge ground of inadmissibility, you are required to fully respond to Part 8, questions 61 through 68 on Form I-485 so that USCIS can determine whether you have met your burden of proof to show that you are not inadmissible as likely at any time to become a public charge. Based on your filing category, you are not exempt from the public charge ground of inadmissibility and therefore, you were required to answer yes to Part 8, questions 61 and fully answer questions 62 through 68 on Form I-485. Therefore, USCIS sent you a request for evidence. Your response was due by May 8, 2025.

On March 13, 2025, USCIS received your response. The request for evidence letter asked you to provide the following:

- Please provide responses to the following questions related to the public charge ground of inadmissibility, which are found on pages 13 and 14 of the Form I-485 you filed. Place your initials and the date next to each answer to questions 62-68 below and return your completed response to this notice. If you believe you are exempt from the public charge ground of inadmissibility, and therefore exempt from responding to the questions 62-68, please indicate the category that exempts you from this ground. The full list of exempt categories can be found at 8 CFR 212.23.

After evaluating your response, USCIS has found that it is insufficient because you did not place your initials and the date next to each answer to questions 62-68.

You have not established that you are eligible for adjustment under section 245 of the Immigration and Naturalization Act (INA). Therefore, we must deny your Form I-485.

You may not appeal this decision. However, if you believe that the denial of your Form I-485 is in error, you may file a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider using Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion. The grounds for a Motion to Reopen and Motion to Reconsider are explained in Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), section 103.5(a). You must file Form I-290B within 30 days of the date of this decision if the decision was served in person, or within 33 days if the decision was served by mailed. See Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), sections 103.5(a) and 103.8(b). Note: You must follow the most current filing instructions for Form I-290B, which can be found at www.uscis.gov.

To access Form I-290B or if you need additional information, please visit the USCIS Web site at www.uscis.gov or call the USCIS Contact Center toll free at 1-800-375-5283.

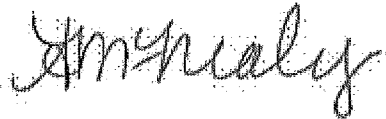

NOTE on Employment Authorization Document: Any employment authorization based upon this Form I-485 is automatically terminated if the expiration date on the employment authorization document has been reached. See Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), section 274a.14(a)(1)(i). Since this Form I-485 is denied, the condition upon which your employment authorization was based no longer exists. Any unexpired employment authorization based upon this Form I-485 is revoked as of 18 days from the date of this notice, unless you submit, within 18 days, proof that your Form I-485 remains pending. See Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), section 274a.14(b)(2). The decision by the district director shall be final and no appeal shall lie from the decision to revoke the authorization. Your employment authorization document should be returned to the local USCIS office.

NOTE on Advance Parole Document: Any advance parole document based upon this Form I-485 is automatically terminated if the expiration date of the time for which parole was authorized has been reached. See Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), section 212.5(e)(1)(ii). Since this Form I-485 is denied, the purpose for which your advance parole document was issued has been accomplished. Any unexpired advance parole document issued to you based upon this Form I-485 is terminated as of the date of this notice. See Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), section 212.5(e)(2)(i). Your advance parole document should be returned to the local USCIS office.
