DECREE OF DISSOLUTION AND FINAL ORDERS

THIS CAUSE came before the court on August 21, 2008 for Permanent Orders. Present by telephone were Petitioner and Respondent. Petitioner's counsel appeared in person.

The parties advised that they had reached an agreement on all issues and that agreement was read into the record. Following the agreement the court took limited testimony on jurisdiction, the status of the marriage and the parties understanding of the agreement.

Based on the foregoing, the court makes the following findings and orders.

1. The parties were married on
2. There is one child born as issue of the marriage, namely
3. The Petitioner was domiciled in the state of Colorado at least 90 days before the Petition was filed on
4. The Respondent was served with a copy of the Petition on
5. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction and jurisdiction over the parties.
6. The Agreement read into the record is fair to the parties and is not unconscionable.
7. The Parenting plan read into the record is in the best interest of the minor child.
8. The Respondent is not pregnant.
9. The Respondent is not requesting the restoration of a prior name.
10. The Marriage between the parties is irretrievably broken and a Decree of Dissolution of Marriage should enter.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED as follows:

- A. A Decree of Dissolution of Marriage is issued. The parties are hereby released from their marital obligations except as delineated below.
- B. The minor child of the parties shall reside primarily with Respondent and the parties shall share decision making responsibilities.
- C. The Petitioner shall enjoy the following parenting time with the minor child.
 - a. Eight weeks parenting time during the summer school break each year.
 - b. The full thanksgiving break each odd numbered year.
 - c. One half of the Christmas Break from school, in even numbered years it shall be the first $\frac{1}{2}$ of the break, in odd numbered years it will be the last $\frac{1}{2}$ of the break.
 - d. Every spring break.
 - e. Petitioner shall have up to 4 additional long weekends per year with the child at the child's location with 14 days advance notice to Respondent.
 - f. [REDACTED]
 - g. Both parties shall have unrestricted telephone and internet access to the child when the child is in the other parties' possession.
- D. Petitioner shall pay to Respondent, as and for child support, the sum of $ [REDACTED] each month commencing August 2008. Support shall continue until the child reaches the age of 19 or graduates from high school or becomes otherwise emancipates, whichever occurs later.
- E. The Parties agree to let the Child Support Enforcement Unit for El Paso County determine what, if any, child support arrearages exist in this case.
- F. Petitioner shall claim the minor child as an income tax exemption for each Odd numbered tax year so long as he is current in support. Respondent shall be entitled to claim the minor child as an income tax exemption for each even numbered year. If a party does not receive a financial benefit from claiming the child on their taxes, the other party shall be entitled to claim the exemption for that year.
- G. Petitioner shall maintain Medical and Dental insurance on the child so long as there is a duty of support.
- H. Any uncovered medical or dental expenses shall be split along income guidelines based on the latest child support worksheet, after Respondent pays the first $250.00 each calendar year.
- I. The parties will split the cost of transporting the child to parenting time along income guidelines based on the latest child support worksheet. Petitioner is responsible for securing travel arrangements and shall provide to Respondent proof of payment of such costs within 30 days of receiving an invoice. Respondent shall reimburse her portion of said cost to Petitioner within 30 days of receiving notification of the cost.
- J. Both parties waive any payment or claim for spousal maintenance both now and in the future. There are no existing spousal maintenance arrearages.
- K. Both parties are satisfied with the division of personal property in this action and each shall bear any motor vehicles in their possession free and clear of any claim of the other.

L. The parties represent that they have only one joint debt, that being a repossessed vehicle debt owed to [REDACTED] petitioner shall pay this debt in full and hold Respondent harmless as to any and all claims for this debt. Each party shall pay any and all debts in their name only and hold the other harmless on the same.
